Item #4135, Vortex Series 4100 Solid Carbide 1/4 x 2 High Helix Foam Bit $65.59

Thank you for shopping with us!

These tools have been specifically designed for cutting low density foam materials at high feed rates. This series of tools is recommended for " closed cell" foam applications. These tools have an open flute geometry and high helix angle that " augers out" material. Other sizes available on request.
