Item #4160, Vortex Series 4100 Solid Carbide 1/2" x 1 3/4" High Helix Foam Bit $111.43

Thank you for shopping with us! These tools have been specifically designed for cutting low density foam materials at high feed rates. This series of tools is recommended for "closed cell" foam applications. These tools have an open flute geometry and high helix angle that "augers out" material. Other sizes available on request.
